Financial Report:

Our starting cash balance as of 11/30 is $28,497.36 .Applefest profit of $16,283.80. Volume of grant activity flowing in. We have paid out $2200 in grants thus far; law enforcement, ski club, flex seating, robotics club requests.

Principal Report:

Mr Long went over recent activities, Powder puff, pep-a-rally, Veterans day performance. Well received, students loved it. 8th grade step up day was very successful. School clubs were represented so 8th graders could interact, ask questions. Discussion on partnering with SNHU on dual enrollment and AP credits.

Adopt a family:

TMHS family in need, donations. More to come

Trivia Night:

Reviewed pending options for trivia night venues. The Elks Tewksbury. Motion made for trivia night to be held March 9 at the elks Tewksbury. Location best suited to handle all needs.

Applefest - Lori went through the food purchased and how volumes worked for Applefest.

Recommended change; food for the crafters.

Parking; additional parking by the rock climbing wall was a huge help to have crafters park there and student clubs. Suggestion to add a confirmation letter for next year to vendors, provide your own dolly or wagon. Raffles: 238 people purchased raffles / $3,100 made on raffles.

All Night Long

Suggestion to have the high school PAC go to lower grade school PACS to recruit volunteers for ANL
