

Would you like to get outdoors more? Do you like to run or walk in the woods? If so, join the 2022 Wynn School Running/Walking club. The club is open to everyone from the serious runner to the casual walker.

There is a club run/walk every Monday – Thursday and participants can select what day or days they wish to run.

If you are interested in joining the running/walking club pick up a sign up sheets and off campus permission slip at the front office or download them from the school web site.

On Monday, September 12, 2022, there will be a brief organizational meeting in the auditorium after second dismissal. After the meeting, all members who have turned in off campus permission slips, will be walking the on campus and the Livingston Park portion of the running course, so please dress appropriately. Also, make arrangements to be picked up by your parent or guardian in front of the school at 3:15.
