

Word Choice Conference Comments

- That's exactly how that word sounds. Good for you.
- My favorite word in your writing is "lumpidy." What is yours?
- "...zipped around the corner." That's exactly how cats move! I can see it.
- Thank you for using different words to describe the rain. It makes your writing interesting to read.
- May I borrow your word "jibber jabber?" I'm going to write it in my notebook to use in my own story.
- The verbs you use work so well in this piece. They make things happen.
- Where did you come up with that word? It's an excellent choice.
- I love how you began these three words with the same sound.
- Did you know there are several ways to say this? Let me show you a couple.
- I love how you wove in a new word with some old favorites.
- Very vivid use of language!
- Many great action verbs.
- Inventive and risky - thanks for making me pay attention to your words.
- I can picture this!
- I have a favorite phrase in your piece, do you?
- Your words sparkle!
- Your words paint a picture.
- _____, what a perfect word for this image.
- You've taken some risks with words and it paid off.
- You really drew a picture in my mind.
- Nice variety of key words and phrases.