A) Introduce a topic; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison /contrast, and cause/effect; including formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. B) Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples. C) Use appropriate transitions to clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts. D) Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform or explain about the topic. E) Establish and maintain a formal style. F) Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.
3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well structured event sequences. A) Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically. B) Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, and description, to develop experiences, events, and /or characters. C) Use a variety of transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence and signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another. D) Use precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language to convey experiences and events. E) Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.
4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
5	With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing by: planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of three pages in a single sitting. (In collaboration with Instructional Technology Staff.)
7	Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and refocusing the inquiry when appropriate.
8	Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusion of others while avoiding plagiarism and providing basic bibliographic information from sources..
9	Draw evidence from literacy or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. A) Apply grade 6 Reading standards to literature. (e.g., “Compare and contrast texts in different forms or genres ...”). B) Apply grade 6 Reading standards to literary notification (e.g., “Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, ...”).
10	Write routinely over extended time frames, (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
Speaking &amp; Listening
1	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher led) with diverse partners on grade 6 topics, texts, and issues , building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly. A) Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion. B) Follow rules for collegial discussions, set specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed. C) Pose and respond to specific questions with elaboration and detail by making comments that contribute to the topic, text, or issue under discussion. D) Review the key ideas expressed and demonstrate understanding of multiple perspectives through reflection and paraphrasing.
2	Interpret information presented in diverse media and formats (e.g. visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how it contributes to a topic, text, or issue under study.
3	Delineate a speaker’s argument and specific claims, distinguishing claims that are supported by reasons and evidence from claims that are not.
4	Present claims and findings, sequencing ideas logically and using pertinent description, facts and details to accentuate main ideas or themes; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.
5	Include multimedia components (e.g., graphics, images, music, sound) and visual displays in presentations to clarify information. (In collaboration w/ Instructional Technology Staff.)

	Speaking &amp; Listening (continued)
6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate. (See grade 6 Language standards 1 and 3 for specific expectations.)
	Language
1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. A) Ensure that pronouns are in the proper case (subjective, objective, possessive). B) Use intensive pronouns (e.g., myself, ourselves ). C) Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in pronoun number and person. D) Recognize and correct vague pronouns (i.e., ones with unclear or ambiguous antecedents). E) Recognize variations from standard English in their own and others' writing and speaking, and identify and use strategies to improve expression in conventional language.*
